Dear Mr President.

Many Thanks for your good Samaritan letter. Caring for me in the midst of so great a throng of heavy affairs is most touchingly friendly & kind.

How great a work for peace & fair play God is giving you to do, & how nobly you are doing it. building a monument of Heaven's simple unchangeable foundational righteousness in the sight of all nations.
Truly blessed are the peacemakers. At home all hearts are yours, & abroad how many millions more.

Warm congratulations.
Faithfully Yours

Dr. Mr P. I thank you for yr good Samaritan letter I am in Arizona for nursing my young daughter who has had pneumonia. In this dry air she is getting well. Thinking of me in the midst of the so many <sup>heavy</sup> affairs is most <sup>kindly</sup> <sup>friendly</sup> <sup>kind</sup>. ~~Thank you~~ work you are doing. Blessed are the peace makers. I congratulate you, here in the Arizona desert as every where you have the people's hearts & they are proud of your your work for universal fair play, & peace is already seen the world over as the noblest monument of simple foundational righteousness applied to national affairs.
How great & good a work, <sup>for universal peace & fair play</sup> God is giving you to do & how truly you are doing it. All human hearts are yours, & abroad over all the world how many millions more. Truly blessed are the peace makers. Your work stands as a type of universal fair play, a <sup>Building a</sup> ~~typical~~ monument of heaven's simple unchangeable ~~eternal~~ foundational righteousness. in the sight of all the nations.
With the warmest congratulations
Faithfully Yours
